World Petroleum Exhibition - 65% of Space Already Allocated

Over 9,500sqm, 65% of the total available space at the 19th WPC Exhibitions, has already been allocated, 16 months before the event is due to take place. This is 1,000sqm more than the total exhibition space at the 18th WPC in Johannesburg in 2005. More than 55 companies representing over 20 countries from 4 continents have already been assigned space on the floorplan.

If you would like further information on the exhibition please e-mail ijvanov@19wpc.com or go to our website, where a full list of exhibitors and floorplans are available: www.19wpc.com

19th WPC Promoted at IP Week London

The 19th WPC team and the World Petroleum Council were present with a display stand at IP Week to promote the Congress. The event which took place in London on the 12-15th of February is the largest of its kind in Europe. The team had a chance to meet with senior level representatives and key decision makers from companies such as IHS Energy, Saudi Aramco, EDS, PAZ Oil Company and the WPC National Committees of Algeria, Belgium, Finland, Hungary, Libya and Serbia.

CERAWEEK Provides the Ideal Meeting Place to Promote Congress

CERAWEEK 2007, is the leading and most influential forum for exploring the energy future. The event, which took place in Houston, Texas, was attended by more than 1,600 high level energy representatives and policymakers from over 50 countries. The 19th WPC team were able not only to promote the congress, but held meetings to further discuss the event including the exhibitions and sponsorship with key decision makers from companies such as Chevron, PriceWaterhouseCoopers, Accenture, Hewlett Packard, Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation and IHS.

Call for Papers

The Call for Papers launched last month is open until the 28th of September 2007 for experts to submit their abstracts for papers and posters for consideration to the Chairs of the Technical Forums. All submissions will be collected electronically and abstracts can be submitted via the link on the World Petroleum Council website at www.world-petroleum.org, or from the dedicated Congress site at www.19wpc.com
